On the Eleventh Anniversary of the 17th of February Revolution

The Embassy of the State of Libya in Washington, D.C. recognizes the eleventh anniversary of the 17th of February revolution as a significant event in the modern history of the nation. The anniversary of this event reminds Libyans of the importance of national unity during these times and the Embassy hopes the new year brings reconciliation and security across the entire country. On this occasion, we are pleased to extend our congratulations and blessings to all Libyan people, and to salute the Libyan community residing in the United States of America.

Embassy of the State of Libya
United States of America